VOL. III. NO. 311.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The highest price paid for a yearling during the present year was $10,000 for Method, by Order—Victorine, a full brother to Ornament, bought by J. S. Curtis. He is a grand looking colt, and bids fair to make a name for himself. J. W. Rogers, who trains for Mr. Curtis, pins his faith in him.

At Gravesend the leading subject talked about by trainers is the form shown by P. J. Dwyer's colt Miller, by Hindoo—Bonnie Gal. He moves easily and has already shown great speed. Frank McCabe says he thinks that Dwyer has got another Hanover.

Out in Montana Marcus Daly has a regular "corker" in preparation—a dashing colt by Goldfinch—Carina. Matt Byrnes says he is as fine a looking colt as he ever laid eyes on. Mr. Daly paid $8,600 for him. Some good horsemen say that the good form shown by this youngster was a leading inducement for Mr. Daly to purchase Hamburg, and that he is sure that he has two winners for next year.

The most highly tried yearling of the season is a chestnut filly, recently owned and trained by Owen Bradley of Lexington, Ky. Last month on the Lexington track she ran three furlongs with 115 pounds up in 35½. C. T. Patterson paid $3,000 for this filly.

James Rowe has his eye upon several of the big two-year-old stakes of 1898. He relies upon two colts and a filly, the get of Juvenal—Retaliation, from Bassinette and a chestnut colt from Mag. That his trainer thinks well of this youngster is proved by the fact that he states $10,000 would not buy him.

Up to and including Saturday the aggregate sum of $31,950 had been distributed among the owners of horses contending at New Orleans. J. W. Schorr & Son head the list of winners with $2,648 to their credit, closely followed by E. S. Gardner & Son, with a total of $2,234. Other owners, well known to Chicago patrons of racing, have annexed the following amounts: Stanton & Tucker, $1,518; Clint DeWitt, $975; J. H. Payne & Co., $950; W. A. McConnell, $875; W. A. Porter, $843; W. C. Fessenden, $775; Mrs. W. W. Lyles, $773; James T. Davis, $646; G. C. Bennett, $600; Foster Bros., $600; John Brenock, $275 and W. H. Roller, $275.

Though Tommy Burns did not do very well last week he still leads the other jockeys at New Orleans so far in winning mounts that he has them all double distanced. The records of the jockeys who have been fortunate enough to land two winners are as follows, up to and including Tuesday:

	1st.	2nd.	3rd.
T. Burns.....	26	3	5
C. Combs.....	8	6	15

When Lord Marmion beat Whitten Bros' Good Friend in a selling race at Oakland last Friday Tom Ryan boosted him $500 over his entered selling at the first bid. Sam Hildreth then took a hand and raised the colt $500 more, it costing his owner, J. MacManus, $1,505 to retain his fleet son of St. Carlo. MacManus was at one time a street car conductor, but so long as St. Cuthbert, Lord Marmion, and Tiger Lily retain their present form he is not likely to be under the necessity of again resorting to the bell punch for a means of living.

According to the Picayune there are some "sweet things" among the yearlings soon to be 2-year-olds, now in training at the New Orleans track. Among those favorably spoken of are a brother to Lithos and a sister to Successful, in the stable of F. Reagan, and brothers to Flying Dutchman and Leo Lake, belonging to F. H. Hickok, both good lookers. Hickok is credited with saying that the brother to Flying Dutchman is the fastest youngster he ever owned. C. J. Garrison's Soudan—Pastel filly is credited with abundant speed and with being a remarkably quick breaker, a quality that will tell in the short distances the 2-year-olds are raced over in their first essays early in the year.

The racing programs at both of the San Francisco tracks are very well constructed and sufficiently varied to cater to all kinds and qualities of the horses now located near the city of the Golden Gate. Their program of stakes, too, is very liberal, but at each track the opportunity to make provision for what would be a very attractive event has been overlooked. A stake race for 3-year-olds over a distance of ground, a Californian St. Leger, with such material right at hand as The Roman, Altamax, Salvado, Shasta Water, Hohenzollern, Horatio, Devil's Dream, Parthemax, Scarborough, Personne, Vincitor, Rey del Tierra, May W. Aquinas, Oscurio, Osric II, Bernardillo and other lesser lights of 3-year-old form, would certainly have proved a popular and interesting feature for the closing days of the year. It is of course too late now, but admirers of good horses will regret that at least The Roman, Altamax and Salvado were not given a chance to meet at a mile and a half with stake weight up. The Derby won last spring by Scarborough certainly evoked sufficiently widespread interest and drew a sufficiently great attendance to suggest to the liberal and progressive San Francisco racing organizations the desirability of instituting a corresponding event to be decided by the 3-year-olds in the last month of their career at that age.

MR. GIDEON'S EXPEDITION.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 29.—Dave Gideon left for California Saturday. Jockey O'Connor went with him. Gideon leased his services from W. C. Daly for the winter. Gideon takes eight horses with him, including Ballister, a 2-year-old, who has never started but has been highly tried. He is a chestnut colt, by Rayon d'Or—Ballerina.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Satsuma is the only horse that has run a mile in 1:40 or better twice in one Californian year. Vincitor enjoys the distinction of having run 1:40 as a three-year-old, while in January of the next year he negotiated the mile in 1:39½ with 111 pounds up.

The news from New York declares that Sir Walter is to race no more. The old horse has been most uncertain of performance for the last three years and deserves retirement if ever a horse did.

Marcus Daly has added Shipmate, 9, by Spendthrift—Messmate, to his band of brood mares. She was a good race mare in her day and is the dam of that good colt First Mate.

John Madden has bought Peg Woffington, the dam of Kitty Clive, Bracegirdle, Madrilene and the highly bred yearling David Garrick.

That good colt Casper in the Burns & Waterhouse stable is getting ready to race again.

Time, 24½, 50, 1:02½, 1:16, 1:29½.
Winner—B. m. 5, by Apache—Virgie.
Start good. Won in a hard drive. There was keen action for third place. Olive was lucky and is far from reliable. She is good. Argentina should have won. She was weirdly ridden. Throw out the race. Murphy ran to the notch. He is a mere sprinter and a coward. Watch Ruth. She is ready and closed strong. Martin's forte is the mud. Walter J was short and sulks. He is most unreliable. Never mind Cromwell's race. He was coming stoutly at the finish, but was eased at the end.
Scratched—Tobey, 107; All Smoke, 107; George Miller, 107; Coda, 107; Meadow Lark, 107; O'Fleta, 112.

Winner—B. h. 6, by Leonatus—Falaise.
Start good. Won in a gallop. The peculiar running of the race aided Libertine. The pace was very slow. In consequence the result may have been false. Libertine had clear sailing. May W was badly ridden. Tea Rose and Trolley were not well handled.
Scratched—Stentor, 104.

3452 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 25½, 50½, 1:03, 1:16½, 1:42.
Winner—Ch. g. by Kallikrates—Paradox.
Start good. Won in a hard drive. Myth ran an honest race. Was well ridden and had a clear path. Bernardillo was the best and should have won. He was badly ridden and shut off at start and on the first turn. Watch Reiff. He improves with every race and was closing like a good horse at the end. Watch Prim, too. She is nearly ready. She ran short today. So did Oscurio. He was unlucky at the start. Tab him for early action. Coupon ran below the mark and was eased up. The same applies to Stouffer.
Scratched—Capt. Peirsal, 100; Rey del Tierra, 103.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Fitzjames—Charity.
Start good. Won in a gallop. Snowdown is a wonder at the jumping game and far outclassed his field. He was well handled and lucky. Reese closed strong. He ran a good race, is improving in his fencing action and is ready. Veragua and Una Colorado jumped clumsily. Gold Dust ran an honest race. Viking was coming at finish. Reno was short. Forks was closing. He was shut off on the stretch turn. Watch him.

Winner—Ch. c, by St. Carlo—Countess of Langdon.

Start good. Won very easily. There was a drive for the place. The Count is a noble colt.
He was shut off on the first turn, overcame all obstacles and showed that he was far the best.
Torsida ran a good race. It was above her mark. She was lucky and well ridden, though. Jones ran well and will do best in the mud. Mellow going suits Morello best. Marplot was outclassed. Callatine ran a funny race. She seems to be a sprinter and went to pieces in the sharp contention from the eighth pole.
